The [pastor] should always be chief in action, that by his living he may point out the way of life to those that are put under him, and that the flock, which follows the voice and manners of the shepherd, may learn how to walk better through example than through words. For he who is required by the necessity of his position to speak the highest things is compelled by the same necessity to exhibit the highest things.

MANIFESTING THE SPIRIT

The Christmas season closes this Sunday with the Baptism of the Lord. This feast is a sister to last week’s feast of the Epiphany. Each of them celebrates an “epiphany,” or a manifestation of the Spirit of God in Jesus—first in his birth, and now at his baptism.

The divine Spirit is manifested in all of the scriptures for this feast. Psalm 104 highlights the Spirit of God creating and renewing the earth, while the reading from Isaiah describes God restoring Israel. In Luke’s account of the baptism of the Lord the Holy Spirit descends upon Jesus. And the letter from Titus reminds us that the Holy Spirit was “richly poured out” on us also, through the “bath of rebirth” (Titus 3:5,6).

Thank you!

All the clergy and staff wish to thank you for all the gifts and cards we received this Christmas Season. May God’s continuous blessings be upon each of you throughout the new year.

Fr. John, Fr. Ernesto, Fr. Gerard & Staff

The Waters of Baptism

When new sod is put in, it needs constant saturation with water. Landscapers say that this “knits” the sod to the soil. The same when a branch is grafted onto a tree: the poultice that joins them at the splice must be kept wet at all times. Water is the stuff that binds the very cells of our bodies together. No wonder religions throughout all times and cultures have used it so prominently. When Jesus stepped into the Jordan for baptism, he “knit” himself to what had come before him. By going to the Jordan, he made himself one with the people of Israel who had crossed it into their Promised Land. With John the Baptist, Christ wove himself into the prophetic tradition that heralded the coming reign of God. He had become fully human in the waters of Mary’s womb, and by partaking in the rite of the baptism of repentance, Jesus identified himself with our sinful, frail humanity. It is through the waters of baptism that Christ continues to graft new members onto his Body, the Church; through these waters we are cleansed from sin and filled with promise of grace, given our destiny for eternal life. For us, as for Jesus, it is also the waters of baptism that inaugurate our mission to proclaim the Good News.

ADOPT A SEMINARIAN?

What better way to celebrate the Year of the Priest than to help educate a future priest? Can you imagine it costs an average of $40,000 a year to maintain a seminarian in school? Since the Eudists staff your parish, would you consider making a monthly contribution to help educate one of their Eudist seminarians? Or could you afford to pay for a whole year, a month, a week or a day? Donations are tax-deductible. Make checks payable to: The Eudists, CJM or for more information contact Fr. APOSTLES OF THE GOOD NEWS

The baptism of Jesus by his cousin, John, may seem odd to us. Here are all the people lining up who have responded to John’s call to repent and be baptized and who are then urged by him to go and live good lives. Here also is Jesus, quietly waiting his turn, and we wonder:

Why does the Savior of the world need baptism? This, as we might expect, is not to be a simple baptism of water. As John the Baptist had foretold, the heavens open and power pours down upon Jesus from the Holy Spirit. He is revealed as the Beloved Son, the one Saint Paul later described as the one “who gave himself for us to deliver us from all lawlessness and to cleanse for himself a people as his own, eager to do what is good” (Titus 2:14). After he was raised from the dead and before his ascension into heaven, Jesus appeared to his disciples, or followers. He reminded them that John had baptized with water, but that they “in a few days...will be baptized with the Holy Spirit” (Acts 1:5). At Pentecost the power of the Holy Spirit fills his followers. They become his apostles, the ones set forth, and begin to take the Good News of the Savior out into the world—healing, forgiving, binding up wounds, teaching, and preaching—all in his name. We too are disciples, always learning more about our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, but we are also his apostles in the world today. In the words of the great Saint Teresa of Avila:

Christ has no body now but yours, no hands, no feet on earth but yours, yours are the eyes with which he looks compassion on this world, yours, are the feet with which he walks to do good, yours are the hands with which he blesses all the world.

A Note of Thanks...Nora Cochrane wishes to thank all who continue to pray for her health and recovery.

Manifestando Al Espíritu

En el tiempo de Navidad finaliza este domingo con el bautismo del Señor. Esta fiesta es hermana de la fiesta de la semana pasada, la Epifanía. Cada una ellas celebra una "epifanía", o manifestación del Espíritu de Dios en Jesús —primero en su nacimiento y ahora en su bautismo.

El Espíritu Divino se manifiesta en todas las lecturas bíblicas de la fiesta. El Salmo 104 destaca al Espíritu de Dios que crea y renueva la tierra, mientras que la lectura de Isaías describe a Dios restaurando a Israel. En el relato de Lucas del bautismo del Señor el Espíritu Santo descendiendo sobre Jesús. Y la carta a Tito nos recuerda que el Espíritu Santos también "derramo con abundancia" sobre nosotros, el "baño de regeneración" (Tito 3:5,6).
