The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

June 6, 2010

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. They owe their name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. The Eudists currently operate in 15 countries most of which are in the developing world. Their primary purpose is evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Their motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church." For more information see <http://www.eudistes.org/english.htm>

CHRIST FORETOLD

In Genesis, Melchizedek is described as a king who is also a priest. As this story is usually interpreted, Melchizedek's action of bringing out bread and wine and blessing it with praise to the Creator is a prophetic action. Seen as a prefigurement of the action of Jesus, he foretells to Abram the One who is to come, the Messiah. The psalm echoes this theme in the time of David the King, who praises and thanks God and proclaims the preexistence of the Christ, who is given princely power from "the day of your birth, in holy splendor" (Psalm 110:3). God has promised this to David and his descendants forever, and God will never go back on this promise.

Upon our knees at night;
Faith is not merely straying

MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS June 11

Think of countless T-shirts and bumper stickers: "I (BIG RED HEART) a city/pet/candidate/whatever." The heart is truly the universal symbol of love. Catholic tradition pictures Jesus' heart as living token of redemptive love. The Gospels describe Jesus' heart as "meek and humble" (Matthew 11:29), "full of compassion" (Matthew 9:36), a "fountain of living water" (John 7:37-39), of "blood [Eucharist] and water [Baptism]" (John 19:34), sacraments of the church's birth, new Eve from new Adam's side. The Sacred Heart devotion blossomed in the seventeenth century, countering an overemphasis on spiritual unworthiness and an increasing secular contempt for religion with loving affection for Jesus and encouragement of frequent Communion. The devotion's "apostle" was the humble nun Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque (1647-90), who envisioned Jesus, pointing to his burning, wounded heart and lamenting the world's indifference: "Behold the Heart that has loved people so and is loved so little in return!" This cherished Catholic devotion reminds us that, no matter how sophisticated the theology in our heads, discipleship is also, perhaps more so, a matter of the heart.

Lunes: Décima Semana del Tiempo Ordinario

Miércoles: San Efrén

Viernes: El Sagrado Corazón de Jesús

Sábado: El Inmaculado Corazón de María

SAN EFRÉN (c. 306-373)9 de junio

Nació en la actual Turquía, hijo de un sacerdote pagano y de madre cristiana. Desde muy pequeño mostró un temperamento explosivo, mismo que aprendió a controlar. Siendo muy joven se hizo bautizar y posteriormente fue ordenado diácono. Su ministerio estuvo dedicado a la enseñanza de la fe, pues era un gran maestro. Su obispo, notando sus cualidades cristianas y humanas, quiso ordenarlo sacerdote, pero Efrén se opuso pues consideraba el sacerdocio como algo indigno para él. Como diácono y maestro difundió la enseñanza cristiana con cualidades extraordinarias de escritor, haciendo uso de la poesía, los cantos religiosos o bien, parodiando la letra de los cantos populares de su tiempo para no sólo rebatir las herejías cristianas, sino también, para propagar las enseñanzas de Cristo. La historia lo distingue con el mote de "La cítara del Espíritu Santo". Con su poesía fue fundador de una escuela teológica. Pese a que no hablaba el griego, fue audaz en su idioma, escribiendo poemas dedicados a María, Madre de Dios. Sus escritos y misticismo hicieron de él uno de los Doctores de la Iglesia.
