Second Sunday in Ordinary Time — January 15, 2012

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. The Eudists currently operate in 15 countries, most of which are in the developing world. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church." For more information visit:

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Every year, close to the feast of the Conversion of St. Paul on January 25, and before the feast of the Chair of St. Peter on February 22, the cause of Church unity is commended to Christians everywhere. Sadly, Protestants, Orthodox, and Catholics have settled to a status quo of separation. When baptized people become Catholic, we speak of them as being received into "full communion." That means we already means we already munion in faith in including the Many Protestant tions have re-revised the three-readings first ar-Catholics in the Therefore, many bors who are not celebrating and reflecting on the same readings we are savoring on most Sundays of the year. This makes for a new spirit of cooperation among preachers of the gospel, and gives hope that the cause of reunion, desired by Christ, has great vitality at the table of God's Word, and will one day lead to unity at the table of the Lord's Body and Blood.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

The theme of today’s readings is one any stewardship parish should be familiar with, and one whose message bears such a significant impact on our lives that it is well worth repeating time and time again.

God calls each one of us to be His disciples. He knows we are made to know, love and serve Him, and so He reveals Himself to us and calls us to Himself. Just as He called Samuel in the first reading, and then Andrew, Simon Peter, and the unnamed disciple in the Gospel reading, God calls us. He invites us to share in His life of love, because He knows that’s what we are made for.

However, His call necessitates a response. God doesn’t force us into a relationship with Him. Rather, He reveals Himself to us, much like He did to the men in today’s readings.

Both the Old Testament reading and the Gospel tell us of men who heard God’s call, responded by willfully following the Lord and then offered themselves to God as His stewards, using their gifts to bring others to Him.

God calls each and every one of us today, and He wants us to respond. We hear His call in numerous ways, and often, just like He did with Samuel and Andrew, the Lord uses other people to reveal Himself to us, to call us to Himself. We simply must be open to the call, keeping our hearts and minds fixed on Him, and then, we must respond to Him. Our response involves a willing gift of self, offering the Lord all we are – our time, our talent, and our treasure – to serve Him. Then, our lives will bear witness to the Love and goodness of the Lord, and, just as Andrew brought Simon, we will help others find the Lord.

1 Sm 3:3b-10, 19; Ps 40:2, 4, 7-8, 8-9, 10; 1 Cor 6:13c-15a, 17-20; Jn. 1:35-42

SPEAK, LORD, WE ARE LISTENING

In today’s first reading God keeps calling out in the night to a sleeping boy. Neither the boy, Samuel, nor his teacher, Eli, understands who is calling. But God’s persistence convinces them. Samuel is then ready—not ready yet to do anything, but ready to listen. “Speak, for your servant is listening” (1 Samuel 3:10).

In the Gospel Jesus is out teaching. Various people notice him and begin to gather around. They soon become disciples and, like the young Samuel, are ready—not ready yet to do anything, but ready to listen. “Speak,” they say, “we are listening.”

God’s voice is always with us, awake or asleep. It swirls around us like fog on a waterfront, enveloping us, gently urging us to wake up, to listen. Awareness of the voice comes first; then willingness to listen; then, in time, the decision to act, to live according to God’s word. Let’s ask today for the ability to keep our ears open so we don’t miss God’s voice.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

January 15, 2012, Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Almighty ever-living God,
 who govern all things,
 both in heaven and on earth,
 mercifully hear the pleading of your people
 and bestow your peace on our times.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
 one God, for ever and ever.

Reflection question:

What can I do to help to bring about God’s peace?

REFLECCION DOMINICAL

El tema de las lecturas de hoy es una parroquia ninguna administración debe estar familiarizado con, y un mensaje que tiene un impacto tan significativo en nuestras vidas que vale la pena repetir una y otra vez.

Dios llama a cada uno de nosotros para ser sus discípulos. Él sabe que estamos hechos para conocer, amar y servir a Él, y así se revela a nosotros y nos llama a sí mismo. Así como Él llamó a Samuel en la primera lectura, a continuación, Andrés, Simón Pedro y al discípulo sin nombre en la lectura del Evangelio, Dios nos llama. Él nos invita a compartir su vida de amor, porque sabe que es lo que estamos hechos para.

Sin embargo, su llamada exige una respuesta. Dios no nos fuerza a una relación con él. Más bien, Él se revela a nosotros, al igual que lo hizo a los hombres en las lecturas de hoy.

Tanto la lectura del Antiguo Testamento y el Evangelio nos habla de los hombres que habían oído la llamada de Dios, respondió voluntariamente seguir al Señor y luego se ofreció a Dios como sus mayores, usando sus dones para traer a otros a él.

Dios llama a todos y cada uno de nosotros, y Él quiere que respondamos. Escuchamos su llamado de muchas maneras, y con frecuencia, al igual que lo hizo con Samuel y Andrés, el Señor utiliza a otras personas para revelarse a nosotros, que nos llame a sí mismo. Simplemente debemos estar abiertos a la llamada, manteniendo nuestros corazones y mentes fijos en él, y luego, debemos responder a él. Nuestra respuesta consiste en un regalo voluntario de auto, ofreciendo al Señor todo lo que somos - nuestro tiempo, nuestro talento y nuestro tesoro - para que le sirvan. Entonces, nuestra vida será testigo del amor y la bondad del Señor, y, al igual que Andrés llevó a Simón, vamos a ayudar a otros a encontrar al Señor.
