Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time — January 29, 2012

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. The Eudists currently operate in 15 countries, most of which are in the developing world. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church." For more information visit:

FALSE PROPHETS, TRUE PROPHETS

In Deuteronomy today we hear that God's very words will fill the mouth of a true prophet, but a false prophet will, in a manner of speaking, put mere mortal words into God's mouth. In Mark's Gospel, we see Jesus teaching and healing as a true prophet, one filled with the authority of God's own voice, the Holy One of God.

The whole history of our church is filled with both true and false prophets. But in today's Gospel we learn that Jesus' fame spread because he taught with authority; he wasn't an authority because he was popular or famous. We also learn from him, in his desert temptation confrontations with Satan, that anyone can quote scripture, even against God's purposes. And today we hear that his authority was not like that of the scribes, who held the official positions of religious authority in his day. Our work is to do our best to discern the true prophets in our midst, and to be true prophets as well. The psalmist tells us how to do this: by not hardening our hearts when God speaks. If we truly listen to God, it will be God's very words filling our mouths.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

As Christ’s disciples, we are called to recognize all of our gifts as God-given – our time, our talents, and our treasure and to use them accordingly, putting them at the service of the Lord.

Today’s readings remind us that it is the Lord whom we serve. In the gospel, when Jesus rebukes the unclean spirit, “Quiet! Come out of Him!” the gospel tells us, “The unclean spirit convulsed him and with a loud cry came out of him. All were amazed.”

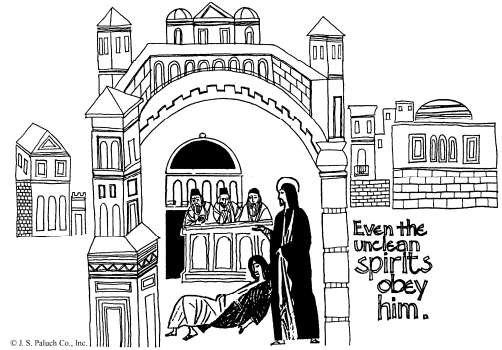

It is amazing. God has authority over the whole world, and He has seen fit to bless us with so many good gifts, to give us life and family and faith, time and talents and treasure. It is only fitting that we recognize those gifts as God-given and give of them in gratitude to the One who has blessed us so.

So, we live to love and serve Him in all we do. Whether we are a mother or father, brother or sister, married or single, doctor or lawyer, writer or singer, it is our duty as Christian stewards to live our lives to the praise and glory of God. All that we do ought to proclaim His goodness to those around us.

In the first reading from Deuteronomy, the writer reminds us of this call. Speaking of prophets whose role it is to proclaim the Good News, he says, “But if a prophet presumes to speak in My name an oracle that I have not commanded him to speak, or speaks in the names of other gods, he shall die.”

Indeed, it is God whom we serve. We are called to live not for our own sake, but for the sake of the Gospel, being sure that through all we say and do, we help others see God.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

January 29, 2012, Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Grant us, Lord our God,
that we may honor you with all our mind,
and love everyone in truth of heart.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

Reflection question:

What can I do to come closer to loving everyone in truth of heart?

CARE CORNER: Social Justice

January has been declared National Slavery and Human Trafficking Prevention Month. As a global institution, the Catholic Church, well positioned to respond to human trafficking, has denounced this horrific crime because it constitutes an offense against human dignity and fundamental human rights. The reality of thousands of our brothers and sisters laboring in modern day slavery compels us to act now to stop human trafficking and to serve the survivors of this crime. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' Committee on Migration has issued a statement entitled On Human Trafficking that addresses the reality of trafficking, U.S. response to it, Catholic teaching and trafficking, and a call to action. Log onto the USCCB website at www.usccb.org for more information.

REFLECTION DOMINICAL

Como los discípulos de Cristo, estamos llamados a reconocer a todos nuestros dones como Dios nos ha dado - nuestro tiempo, nuestros talentos y nuestro tesoro y utilizarlos en consecuencia, su puesta al servicio del Señor.

Las lecturas de hoy nos recuerdan que es el Señor a quien servimos. En el evangelio, cuando Jesús reprende al espíritu inmundo, "¡Silencio! Y sal de él! "El evangelio nos dice:" El espíritu inmundo lo convulso y con un fuerte grito y salió de él. Todos estaban asombrados."

Que es increíble. Dios tiene autoridad sobre todo el mundo, y ha tenido a bien que nos bendiga con cosas buenas para muchos, para darnos la vida y la familia y la fe, tiempo y talento y tesoro. Es justo que reconozcamos los dones que Dios les ha dado y da de ellos en señal de gratitud a Aquel que nos ha bendecido para.

Por lo tanto, vivimos para amar y servir a Jesús en todo lo que hacemos. Ya sea que es una madre o padre, hermano o hermana, casada o soltera, médico o abogado, escritor o cantante, es nuestro deber como mayordomos cristianos a vivir la vida a la alabanza y gloria de Dios. Todo lo que hacemos debe proclamar su bondad a los que nos rodean.

En la primera lectura del Deuteronomio, el escritor nos recuerda de esta convocatoria. Hablando de los profetas, cuya función es la de anunciar la Buena Nueva, dice, "Pero si un profeta se atreve a hablar en mi nombre a un oráculo que no le haya mandado hablar, o habla de los nombres de otros dioses, morirá . "

En efecto, es Dios a quien servimos. Estamos llamados a vivir, no por nuestro propio bien, sino por el bien del Evangelio, estar seguro de que a través de todo lo que decimos y hacemos, ayudar a otros a ver a Dios.

FALSOS PROFETAS, VERDADEROS PROFETAS

Hoy nos enteramos en Deuteronomio de que las palabras de Dios llenarán la boca de un profeta verdadero, pero un profeta falso, en cierto modo, pone meras palabras mortales en boca de Dios. En el Evangelio según San Marcos, vemos las enseñanzas de Jesús y la curación como obra de un verdadero profeta, uno lleno de la autoridad de la propia voz de Dios, el Santo de Dios.

La historia de nuestra Iglesia está llena de profetas, verdaderos y falsos. Pero en el Evangelio de hoy nos enteramos de que la fama de Jesús se extendió porque enseñaba con autoridad; su autoridad no procedía de que Él fuera popular o famoso. También aprendemos de Él, en sus enfrentamientos en el desierto cuando fue tentado por Satanás, que cualquiera puede citar la Sagrada Escritura, incluso en contra de los propósitos de Dios. Y hoy nos enteramos de que su autoridad no era como la de los escribas, que ocupaban los cargos oficiales de autoridad religiosa en aquella época. Nuestro trabajo consiste en hacer nuestro mejor esfuerzo para discernir los verdaderos profetas que hay en medio de nosotros, y también nosotros mismos ser verdaderos profetas. El salmista nos dice cómo hacerlo: no endurecer nuestro corazón cuando Dios habla. Si de verdad escuchamos a Dios, serán Sus palabras Dios las que llenarán nuestra boca.
