Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time - October 17, 2010

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. The Eudists currently operate in 15 countries, most of which are in the developing world. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church." For more information visit: <http://www.eudistes.org/english.htm>

Second Reading — Remain faithful; proclaim the word; be persistent whether it is convenient or not (2 Timothy 3:14 — 4:2).

Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed

All Souls Day commemorates all those who have died and who, have fallen asleep in Christ marked with the sign of faith and who, we pray, may one day join the saints around the great banquet table of the Lamb. We pray for the dead; we pray for the forgiveness of their sins; and we pray that God in his great mercy, will take them to himself.

In November we will have a Novena of Masses, (from novem, nine days' of prayer) to remember our loved ones. Please pick up a All Souls Day envelope, and return it to the parish office. All the names will be published in the bulletin on the weekend before All Souls Day.

St. James – St. Leo Library

You can share in the celebration of National Church Library month by checking out resources in our St. James – St. Leo collection—or volunteering to get the newest donations out on the shelf! Explore some of the more cutting-edge materials in magazines not found in public libraries, on the “Food for Thought” bulletin board, or in topic areas related to the Bible and Christology (would you rethink the Historical Jesus or a “secret” Gospel?). You could prep to take the recent discussion-provoking Pew Study of religion in America: online, see items at <http://features.pewforum.org/quiz/us-religious-knowledge/index.php>.

Even if you missed the initial showings of the three-part series, “God in America,” it is being repeated on KPBS-TV this month. See the poster on the library bulletin board for descriptions of “A New Adam/A New Eden,” “A Nation Reborn/A New Light,” and “Soul of a Nation/of God and Caesar.” If you didn’t attend last year’s presentation on Religious Literacy, or to review, have a look at Stephen Prothero’s book with that title.

Care Corner.....Bread for the World Sunday, October 17

Bread for the World connects Christians who are responding to the Gospel's call to feed the hungry and care for those in need. Today is set aside for remembering those – in our country and around the world - who struggle to get enough to eat. Let us renew our commitment to end hunger through our generosity (www.bread.org) and prayer:

"O God, we remember all those who suffer from hunger and hardship. May our faith in Jesus move us to persist in urging our nation's decision makers to end hunger in your world. We give thanks for Bread for the World and all those who inspire and support us to be agents of your love and compassion. In the Spirit of the Risen Christ, we continue to live in joy and hope. Amen."
