Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time - October 23, 2011

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. The Eudists currently operate in 15 countries, most of which are in the developing world. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church." For more information visit:

LIFE IS ALL ABOUT LOVE

Life is all about love. That is clearly the theme in today's readings. And, Jesus indicates that love is a very important theme for the life of the Christian disciple. He tells the disciples that "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart with all your soul and with all your mind" is the greatest commandment. In other words, the most important duty of a Christian disciple is to love the Lord with his entire self. And, second only to that, the Christian disciple is to love his neighbor as himself. The life of a Christian is, beyond all else, a life of love. The love that Jesus speaks of is not a selfish love fueled by our desire for recognition or even for love in return. Rather, true Christian love is love for the sake of love itself.

WELCOME TO St. James-St. Leo Catholic Community!

We warmly welcome all visitors and hope you will consider making our community your parish home. Church attendance does not make you or your family registered members. Registration forms are in the brochure rack at the entrance of the church, or at the parish office.

COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

All Souls Day commemorates all those who have died and who, we pray, may one day join the saints around the great banquet table of the Lamb. We pray for the dead. We pray for the forgiveness of their sins, and we pray that God in his great mercy, will take them to himself. In November, we will have a Novena of Masses (November 1st—9th) to remember our loved ones. Please pick up an All Souls Day envelope and return it to the parish office. All the names will be published in the bulletin on the weekend before All Souls Day.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

The theme of today’s readings is love, and Jesus reminds us that the most important duty of a Christian disciple is to love the Lord with his whole self, and to also love his neighbor as himself.

But love of neighbor is not always an easy task, especially when we recognize that others don’t always treat us with that sense of selfless love and, in fact, can be downright cruel to us at times. Nonetheless, Christ’s law of love stands firm. We are to love. Always.

Jesus offers us the perfect example of selfless love on the cross. He died out of love for us. In order to make reparation for our sins so that we could enjoy life everlasting, the Lord experienced the most excruciating suffering, simply because He wanted us to reap the reward. The stewardship way of life calls us to follow Jesus’ example and act on this selfless love. By doing so, we set an example and call others to follow Christ, just as St. Paul praised the Thessalonians for doing in the second reading.

The Lord has given us the gift of love and, through His own suffering and death, He has shown us how to selflessly share that love by laying down our lives for others. What’s more, He has given us our time, our talent, and our treasure, and it is our duty as Christian stewards to use them in love of God and in love of neighbor.

— Ex. 22:20-26; Ps. 18:2-3, 3-4, 47 51; 1Thes. 1:5c-10; Mt. 22:34-40

CHRIST’S LOVE COMMAND

There is one word or command that summarizes today’s Gospel—love. For Jesus there is no distinction between these two commands of loving God and neighbor. One naturally flows from the other. In fact, for Jesus, these commands constitute a way of life for Christian stewards; a unique approach to life and to their relationship with others. Our neighbors include everyone with whom we come into contact: family members, friends, people we don’t like, strangers and particularly those most in need of our love and compassion. Love is always for doing well and helping others grow closer to the Lord. What are ways in which we might do better at following Christ’s love command?

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

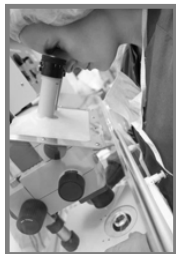

Today, October 23, 2011, the church observes WORLD MISSION SUNDAY. This year’s theme is “As the Father has sent me, so I send you” (Jn 20:21). This universal celebration serves to reawaken and promote awareness of the Church’s missionary call. During October, please pray that the Holy Spirit will enkindle in our hearts a true passion for evangelization and support of missionary activity and economic aid to the poorest Churches. “May World Mission Day reawaken in each of us the joy and desire to “go” out to meet humanity, taking Christ to all” (From the Vatican, 6 January 2011, the Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord. Benedictus PP XVI).

PARISH MINISTRIES

LIFE MATTERS

October is “Respect Life Month” throughout the Catholic Church. In honor of “Respect Life Month,” the St. James Life Matters team asks you to pray for a respect for life from conception through natural death. The US Conference of Catholic Bishops has produced fliers on 8 issues regarding life.

Reproductive Technologies:

Children are the supreme gift of marriage. They have a right to be conceived through their parents' act of love, not by a laboratory process that subjects them to quality control. While one in six couples has difficulty conceiving, today many causes of infertility can be corrected.

For more information on these issues, visit: usccb.org/about/pro-life-activities/respect-life-program.

Tuesday, October 25th:

Please join St. James members in prayer for the 40 Days for Life Prayer Campaign.

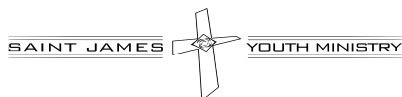

Join members of the St. James community to pray for life in front of the clinic that performs the greatest number of abortions in the county. It is a peaceful prayer vigil for the end of abortion, for the unborn babies and their mothers and for a conversion of the hearts of those participating in abortion procedures. Members of St. James parish will be praying throughout the day on Tuesday, Oct. 25th in front of the abortion clinic on Miramar Road. For more info and to register your group, visit: www.40daysforlife.com/sandiego

REFLEXION DOMINICAL

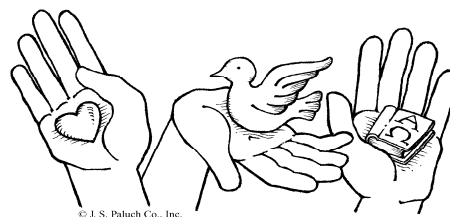

El tema de las lecturas de hoy es el amor, y Jesús nos recuerdan que el deber más importante de un discípulo cristiano es de adorar al Señor con su ser entero, y también amar a su vecino como él mismo.

Pero el amor al vecino no es siempre una tarea fácil, especialmente cuando reconocemos que otros no siempre nos tratan con ese sentido del amor generoso, y de hecho a veces puede ser categóricamente cruel a nosotros. Sin embargo, la ley de Cristo permanece firme. Somos para amar. Siempre.

Jesús nos ofrece el ejemplo perfecto del amor generoso en la cruz. Murió de amor por nosotros. Para reparar nuestros pecados y podamos disfrutar de la vida eterna, el Señor experimentó el sufrimiento más intolerable, simplemente porque deseó que cosecháramos la recompensa. El estilo de vida de la administración nos llama a seguir el ejemplo de Jesús y actuar en este amor generoso. Haciendo así, damos un ejemplo e invitamos a otros a seguir a Cristo, ustamente comos. Pablo alaba a los Tesalonicenses en la lectura de segundo.

El Señor nos ha dado el regalo del amor a través de su propio sufrimiento y muerte, El nos ha mostrado como compartir generosamente ese amor por imponer nuestras vidas para otros. Además, nos ha dado nuestro tiempo, nuestro talento, y nuestro tesoro, y es nuestro deber como guardianes cristianos de utilizarlos en amor de Dios y en el amor de vecino.

“Amarás al Señor, tu Dios, con todo tu corazón, con toda tu alma y con toda tu mente”.

— Mateo 22:37
