Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time - November 14, 2010

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. The Eudists currently operate in 15 countries, most of which are in the developing world. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church." For more information visit: <http://www.eudistes.org/english.htm>

Persevere in our Daily Work

In our world and culture, where hard work is valued so much (we even give over a whole day on the civic calendar to celebrate labor) and our "busyness" seems to escalate continually, Paul's admonitions to the Thessalonians seem a bit obvious. But even in our lives today, when we have more and more devices to save time, and still seem to have less and less of it, people yet find ways to be busybodies in the midst of all their busyness. In Paul's day, some members of the Christian community were being idle because they knew the Lord was returning in glory very soon. Why bother to work? So they turned their attention to meddling in the lives of others. Theirs was a rather complacent "I've been saved" attitude in the face of the great tumult of the end times described by Malachi and Jesus in the Gospel. These days, we have no such potent notion of the Lord's imminent return, but Paul's message, which has an echo both in Malachi and Luke, is still pertinent for us. We must keep on doing our daily work, and persevere in it, consecrate it all to the Lord, and tend to being faithful until the time of his return.

Topic: Memory Matters

Presenter: Dorthy Petrich, Outreach Coordinator,
San Diego/Imperial Alzheimer's Association

Memory is a concern for seniors and people of all ages. Although memory problems and loss of mental acuity can often occur in the aging process, a few lifestyle changes can greatly improve memory function. After attending this workshop, participants will be able to identify types of memory, recognize mental changes common with normal aging, learn several memory exercises, and understand strategies for improving memory.

SAINT ROSE PHILIPPINE DUCHESNE
(1769-1852)
November 18

Pope Benedict once declared himself struck by how remarkably diverse our American saints are—some native born: Mother Seton, Katherine Drexel, Kateri Tekakwitha; most, like many Catholics today, immigrants: Padre Serra, Bishop Neumann, Mother Cabrini, Rose Philippine Duchesne. When the French Revolution that dispersed her convent ended, Rose joined the Religious of the Sacred Heart, volunteering for their United States mission, opening the first free school west of the Mississippi. Only after lengthy service as Superior did Rose—now seventy-one—realize her life's dream, undertaking a mission among the Potawatomi Indians. When some worried about her advanced age and failing health, the Jesuit mission leader overruled them: "She must come! She may not be able to do much work, but she'll bring the mission success by praying for us!" Frustrated by her inability to learn their languages, Rose nevertheless "spoke" to the Native Americans by her prayerful presence before the tabernacle. "Quah-kah-ka-num-ad," they named her, "Woman-Who-Prays-Always"—their way of bestowing the title the Church would later make official: saint!

La obra de la iglesia nunca estará completa sin tu parte como miembro del equipo de co-responsables. Todos debemos trabajar juntos para integrar la imagen completa de lo que Dios puede hacer a través de nuestro ministerio eclesial. Cada co-responsable debe encontrar su lugar y llenarlo.

PERSEVERAR EN NUESTRO TRABAJO DIARIO

En nuestro mundo y cultura, donde el trabajo duro se valora tanto (dedicamos todo un día del calendario cívico a celebrar el trabajo) y nuestras "ocupaciones" parecen escalar de continuo, las admoniciones de san Pablo a los tesalonicenses parecen un tanto obvias. Pero aun en nuestras vidas de hoy, cuando tenemos más y más aparatos para ahorrar tiempo y pensamos que tenemos menos y menos, hay muchos que encuentran la manera de ser entremetidos en medio de tantas ocupaciones. En tiempos de san Pablo, algunos miembros de la comunidad cristiana estaban ociosos porque sabían que el Señor retornaría en gloria muy pronto. ¿Por qué molestarse en trabajar? Así que volcaron su atención a meterse en la vida de otros. Suya era la bien complaciente actitud de "yo soy salvo" frente al gran tumulto de los últimos días descritos por Malaquías y por Jesús en el Evangelio. En estos días, no tenemos una noción tan potente del inminente retorno del Señor, pero el mensaje de san Pablo, que halla eco en Malaquías y en san Lucas, todavía es pertinente en nuestros días. Debemos continuar haciendo nuestro trabajo diario con perseverancia, consagrándolo todo al Señor y siendo fieles hasta el día de su regreso.
