Fourth Sunday of Advent - December 19, 2010

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. The Eudists currently operate in 15 countries, most of which are in the developing world. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church." For more information visit:

Trust in God

On this final Sunday of Advent our scriptures focus on the historical birth of Jesus, who is son of David and Son of God, child and king, Jesus and Emmanuel.

Isaiah the prophet begs Ahaz to ask for a sign, to allow God to offer him reassurance of the survival of the Davidic dynasty. The king hypocritically refuses to "tempt the LORD" in that way (Isaiah 7:12), but the prophet foretells the birth of a son, an heir to the throne, who will prove the Lord's enduring protection of God's chosen lineage on the throne of David. The child will be called Emmanuel.

Matthew's reference to this history in his description of the birth of Jesus highlights the contrast between the faithless refusal of trust shown by Ahaz, and the complete trust in God shown by Mary and Joseph in bringing about the birth of Jesus Christ.

Feast of Faith—Gathering

When Pope Benedict XVI visited the United States in 2008, tens of thousands gathered in Yankee Stadium to celebrate the Eucharist with him. What made them different from all the other excited crowds who have assembled there through the years? When they began to sing together, to listen together, to pray together, they ceased to be a crowd, and became a liturgical assembly. It was not where they were but what they did that set them apart.

The Gospels speak of many instances when Jesus prayed alone to his Father. But Jesus also put a special value on communal prayer. “Where two or three are gathered together in my name,” he told his disciples, “there am I in the midst of them” (Matthew 18:20). Jesus gave his own mission to his followers, sending them forth to do everything he did: to heal, to teach, to proclaim the kingdom. Jesus wants us to meet God in and through each other. So the Christian community continues to gather, Sunday after Sunday. When we get up on Sunday morning and come to Mass, we respond to Jesus’ invitation, and we express our trust in his promise that whenever we come together, he comes, too.

Risky Business

Matthew’s Gospel today tells us Joseph was betrothed to Mary. A betrothal was a much more formal arrangement than an engagement is today. A special ceremony before witnesses marked the betrothal, which was considered a binding contract. The couple might wait for a year before the bridegroom took the bride into his house and began married life. Any sexual activity during the betrothal was frowned upon. If the bride became pregnant by another man, her groom had the right to denounce her, and she would be stoned to death. The alternative was to quietly divorce her. This would have saved Joseph from shame and humiliation, but would have done nothing to protect Mary. Her pregnancy would have subjected her to fierce condemnation and an uncertain future. God spoke in Joseph’s dream and told him not to be afraid to take Mary as his wife. God gave the child a name—Jesus, the one who saves. It was usual in Jewish families for the father to name a child; this child was named by his heavenly Father, but brought through adoption into Joseph’s family, descendants of David, Israel’s greatest king. Joseph could have ignored the dream, just as Mary could have refused the message of the angel that she was chosen to bear the Messiah. Joseph took a risk and said “Yes” to God without regard for what the outcome might be. Not all women have a “just man” like Joseph to do the right thing and stand by them during the challenges of pregnancy and birth. Not all women have the resources to cope with single motherhood or with a child’s mental or physical disabilities. Some have trouble even putting food on the table for a growing family when times are hard. Take a risk like Joseph and commit to offering help.

Life matters...
Embrace the gift!

As we begin the celebration of baby Jesus, God made flesh among us, let us reflect on the words of our Pope:
 "With regard to the embryo in the womb, science itself highlights its autonomy capable of interaction with the mother, the coordination of biological processes, the continuity of development, the growing complexity of the organism. This is not an accumulation of biological material, but a new living being, dynamic and wonderfully ordered, a new unique human being. So was Jesus in Mary's womb, so it was for all of us in our mother's womb."
 ~Pope Benedict XVI, speaking at an unprecedented "vigil for all nascent human life" at St. Peter's Basilica in Rome. The vigil was held in union with thousands of similar events in parishes and dioceses across the world.

"Man's life comes from God; it is his gift, his image and imprint, a sharing in his breath of life... Human life and death are thus in the hands of God..."

FIESTA DE LA FE—Pedimos perdón

Como el amor de Dios es algo tan obvio, es posible que nos resulte un poco difícil explicarlo. Resulta aun más difícil explicarlo cuando en nuestra vida no nos hemos sentido amados por Dios, así como somos, en nuestra humanidad más plena. Si el amor es lo único que basta, si sólo Dios basta, como escribió santa Teresa, ¿cómo es que ese amor no nos llega? Pues sí nos llega, a todos y todas, lo que muchas veces sucede es que no siempre estamos abiertos a ese amor, en cierta forma, nos negamos a él, o bien, no respondemos a ese amor tan grande que recibimos de Dios. Por eso pedimos perdón durante la celebración de la Misa, porque no hemos amado a Dios como él nos amó; porque no hemos seguido su mandato de amar al prójimo como a nosotros mismos; porque no hemos caminado humildemente ante su presencia y tampoco hemos vivido la justicia. Porque no hemos dejado todo para seguirlo. Le pedimos perdón mediante el Acto Penitencial, el Señor ten piedad o durante la Pascua, con la aspersión del agua bendita. Experimentamos así la gran misericordia de Dios, cuyo amor por nosotros es ilimitado. —Miguel Arias, © Copyright, J. S. Paluch Co.

CONFIANZA EN DIOS

En este último domingo de Adviento las lecturas se enfocan en el nacimiento histórico de Jesús: el hijo de David e Hijo de Dios, niño y rey, Jesús y Emmanuel.

El profeta Isaías le suplica a Ajaz que pida una señal, para permitir a Dios que le asegure la sobrevivencia de la dinastía de David. El rey hipócrita rehúsa “tentar al SEÑOR” de esa manera (Isaías 7:12), pero el profeta predice el nacimiento de un hijo, un heredero al trono, quien probará la duradera protección divina del linaje elegido del trono de David. El niño será llamado Emmanuel.

Mateo se refiere a esta historia en su descripción de los puntos principales del nacimiento de Jesús que contrasta a Ajaz quien rehúsa confiar por falta de fe, y la completa confianza en Dios que María y José demostraron al cooperar con el nacimiento de Jesucristo. © Copyright, J. S. Paluch Co.
