Second Sunday of Advent - December 5, 2010

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. The Eudists currently operate in 15 countries, most of which are in the developing world. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church." For more information visit: <http://www.eudistes.org/english.htm>

Today's Readings

First Reading — He shall bring justice for the afflicted; the earth shall overflow with the knowledge of the LORD (Isaiah 11:1-10).

Psalms — Justice shall flourish in his time, and fullness of peace for ever (Psalm 72).

Second Reading — Glorify God by living in harmony with one another, welcoming each other as Christ welcomed you (Romans 15:4-9).

Gospel — Produce good fruit worthy of your baptism; repent, for the reign of God is near (Matthew 3:1-12).

Feast of Faith Watching for Christ's Coming

In the season of Advent, we look to the coming of Christ at the end of time, and we prepare ourselves to celebrate his first coming among us at Christmas. Remembrance of the past is combined with preparation for the future. Memory meets action.

In a certain sense, the Mass is an Advent prayer. At the Last Supper, Jesus did not tell his disciples, "Never forget what I did for you." Instead, he said, "Do this in remembrance of me." He calls us to remember by doing, to combine memory with action. In the celebration of the Eucharist, remembering and doing become one. Jesus is as present in our midst as he was in that upper room, breaking the bread and sharing the cup; but it is a new kind of presence, seen only with the eyes of faith. In the heavenly liturgy, there will be no need of sacraments, for there, "celebration is wholly communion and feast" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1136). Here, things are different. We have only glimpses and flashes of the beauty that is yet to be. And yet, in the liturgy, we truly participate in the heavenly liturgy. The Mass is our foretaste of the joys of heaven.

The Long-Awaited One

As the Sundays of Advent unfold the scriptures shift focus from the final coming of the Lord to his historical birth. Today's scriptures blend the two. Isaiah's disillusionment with the kings of his own day led him to envision an ideal king who would rule with divine approval and be led by divine wisdom. For centuries the Jewish people anticipated the arrival of that Messiah, who would usher in a blessed age when the whole world would finally dwell in justice and peace.

After centuries of such growing expectation, the preaching of John the Baptist about the imminent arrival of the Messiah could not help but provoke intense interest. The Baptist's message about preparation for "the one who is coming" (Matthew 3:11) makes clear that Jesus is, in fact, the long-awaited one who is ushering in the new age foretold by Isaiah and all the prophets.

The Sound of Stillness

There is so much busyness at this time of year, so much noise. Can you hear the voice over the racket? John the Baptist, in today's Gospel reading, says we must change ourselves. A great light is going to appear that will expose our sinfulness and burn up in fire what we cannot hide. We cannot afford to be complacent and think we are doing fine as we are. Change is a great idea, you think, but how do I do that? Sixteen hundred years ago a young man grew up in what is now Algeria, on the north coast of Africa. He was the child of a Christian mother and a pagan father. They gave him an excellent education, but as a youth he fell in with a sect called the Manichees, who encouraged sexual promiscuity, drunkenness, and many other vices. In his autobiography he tells us that he reached a point in his life when he had no beliefs and neither the prayers of his mother nor the urgings of his best friend to become a Christian seemed to have any effect. He prayed to God to change him, "but not yet." Finally, he stopped and realized his own limited ability, his emptiness and his powerlessness. He could do nothing through his own efforts. At that point he was quiet enough to hear the "still small voice." God said, "Take up and read," and the scriptures fell open to a passage in the Letter to the Romans (13:13-14). His heart was changed. His name is Augustine and he became a bishop, a great Christian theologian, a doctor of the Church. Advent is a time to slow down, to be quieter, and to listen more carefully, or we might miss the personal message that God has for us.

El martes 7 de diciembre los invitamos a la hora santa y a orar ante Jesús sacramentado de las 7:00 a las 9:00 pm. Especialmente a los jóvenes que pasen un momento ante Jesús sacramentado

Día de la Inmaculada Concepción

El miércoles 8 de Diciembre habrá misa a las 7:00 pm en el templo de San James, honremos a La Inmaculada Concepción de la Virgen María, patrona de los Estados Unidos.

El Altísimo la predestinó desde la eternidad para ser la Madre del Verbo Encarnado. Por eso entre las maravillas de las tres órdenes: de naturaleza, de gracia y de gloria, la distinguió de forma tal que con razón entiende la Iglesia que se refiere a María el oráculo divino: “Yo salí de la boca de Dios como la primogénita y más privilegiada criatura”. (León XIII).

Grupo de Oración

Tendremos el jueves 9 de diciembre el Grupo de Oración. Ven y comparte la experiencia de orar en comunidad. No reunimos a las 7:00 pm, aquí en la Misión de san León Magno.

Adorno Navideño

La Misión de San León solicita 2 arbolitos de 7 pies y plantas de Nochebuena, de antemano les agradecemos su donación. Nuestro altar lucirá de acuerdo al espíritu navideño. Gracias por sus donaciones.
