Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time - February 13, 2011

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. The Eudists currently operate in 15 countries, most of which are in the developing world. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church." For more information visit: <http://www.eudistes.org/english.htm>

Today's Readings

First Reading — God allows us to make choices, but we are not to choose injustice or sinfulness (Sirach 15:15-20).

Psalm — Blessed are they who follow the law of the Lord! (Psalm 119).

Second Reading — God's wisdom is mysterious and hidden (1 Corinthians 2:6-10).

Gospel — Jesus has come not to abolish but to fulfill the law and the prophets (Matthew 5:17-37).

Choice

"If you choose you can keep the commandments," Sirach tells us. God "has set before you fire and water; to whichever you choose, stretch forth your hand" (Sirach 15:15, 16). This is a great mystery: God does not control us so completely that we cannot choose our own path. We have certain boundaries, of course, but no one but we can choose our way within those boundaries.

In today's reading from Matthew's Gospel, Jesus reminds us of our freedom and our responsibility for our lives. He calls us to look beyond the words of the commandments, all the way to their meaning. Look beyond the adultery to the selfishness that poisons our love. Look beyond the murder to the anger that eats away at our compassion. Look beyond the perjured testimony to the lies and deception that drive our behavior.

Our vocation is to choose life for ourselves, and to choose a path through our part of the world that helps make life possible and more abundant for others as well.

Feast of Faith - The Gloria (2)

The Gloria is a rejoicing prayer, an exclamation of praise. It begins with the song of the angels at the announcement of the birth of Jesus (Luke 2:14), a heavenly burst of praise for God's loving action in the world. But in the Gloria, the song goes on, leaping, as it were, from height to height, with every kind of praise, blessing, adoration, glory, and thanksgiving.

We begin by thanking and praising God the Father; then we turn our gaze to Christ, the Lamb of God. The paschal mystery of Christ's suffering, death, and resurrection is found here, at the heart of this prayer, which descends to the depths with Christ, but then rises with him to the heavens, where he is seated at the Father's right hand. The Gloria ends with a series of acclamations to Christ, emphasizing over and over that he "alone" is the Holy One, the Lord, the Most High, truly God, with the Father and the Holy Spirit. Our prayer of praise ends where it began, in the "glory of God the Father." The Gloria, with its arc leading us from the glory of God to the suffering of Christ and again to glory, is the pattern of the Mass itself. At the center of all our prayer is the sacrificial love of Christ. —Corinna Laughlin, © Copyright, J. S. Paluch Co.

No Money, No Mission

Occasionally Catholics ask, "Why is the Church always talking about money?" In the United States, the Church manages itself without government interference or support, so all the money for Church ministries must come from us. We are called to support the Church financially in three ways. The first is the weekly parish offertory, which is used for all parish expenses. Our money in the collection ensures that we can serve and be served as Christ calls us. The second way is through contributions to our diocese to fund ministries and programs too complicated for any single parish to provide, such as training clergy, educational and social services, and marriage and family ministries. The third way is in special or second collections benefitting worthy causes in our parish, diocese, or beyond. We choose which of these to support and in what amount. As the Body of Christ, we can only fulfill our mission if there is money to pay the way. Let's all do our part, for the love of God.

San Diego Blood Bank

The mobile unit of the San Diego Blood Bank will be at St. James Sunday, February 20, from 7:30a.m. to 1:00p.m. to receive blood donations. The need for blood remains great throughout the county and state, and we urge your participation. Bringing it close to home, we have had several parishioners whose lives have been saved by blood transfusions, and over the years we've been doing it, your donations have saved over 9,000 lives. Remember: people are the only source - there is no substitute. We need a big turnout!

For your convenience, you may sign up for an appointment with a volunteer outside the church after Mass today, or you may sign up online at the Blood Bank website: <http://www.sandiegobloodbank.org>. Alternatively, you may call or email either the Blood Bank (1-800-469-7322) or Bob & Cory Graves (1-858-755-8990, robtgraves@wwdb.org).

Each time you donate blood, you have the choice of either creating a Blood Assurance Program for your own family, or taking a "Family Gift Card" which you may give to anyone you choose. It may be given to the Parish, or to any other group, or person of your choosing. Gift cards donated to the Parish are available to any parishioner, or to a member of the immediate family of a parishioner, at any time; cards are available from the rectory office. Each card is good for as many units of blood as are needed, at absolutely no charge to the patient.

Nuestras decisiones

¡Elige, elige, elige! Todos ellos están en círculo. No importa si Usted mira la variedad de panes en la tienda de abarrotes o considera el modelo de carro que necesita. Hay una apabullante variedad de productos para que elijamos. No todas las decisiones son tan importantes. Mas algunas decisiones tienen consecuencias perdurables. Y esas están dirigidas en las lecturas actuales de la Sagrada Escritura. Como se lee en el Sirácide 15,17 “Ante el hombre están vida o muerte, el bien y el mal cualquiera que él elija se le dará.” Es una perspectiva excitante, pero que da miedo. Nosotros tenemos la libertad de elegir en nuestra vida y Dios nos respetará esas decisiones.

Sin embargo, esas decisiones tienen consecuencias, y nosotros hemos de vivir con las consecuencias de nuestras decisiones.

El impacto sobre nuestra administración financiera es muy grande. Cuando escogemos el camino de la vida y el bien, usamos nuestros talentos, tesoro por el Reino de Dios, empleamos el tiempo en comunión con el Señor de ese Reino. Cuando escogemos el camino de la muerte y del mal, dedicamos nuestro tiempo para nosotros mismos para engrandecer nuestro poder, riqueza y todo el placer que sea posible. Quiera Dios darnos la gracia de hacer la decisión correcta.
