Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time — February 5, 2012

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. The Eudists currently operate in 15 countries, most of which are in the developing world. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church." For more information visit:

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The story of Job seems at first hearing to be an extension of February's gloom into the liturgy. The monumental suffering of a good man is so horrific that the laments of the front page of modern newspapers barely measure up. The whole story is not long to tell, but its resolution is of great comfort. We can trace in its plot the stirrings of a belief in an after-life, and in God's great power to right every wrong and raise human beings from suffering.

In the Gospel, we see the fulfillment of these longings in the hand of Jesus, grasping an ill woman by the hand and raising her up to vibrant life. Peter's mother-in-law becomes her best self, attentive to her guests, providing hospitality, the warmth of her laughter, the delights of her kitchen. Last week, at Candlemas, candles were blessed, including baptismal candles for some not yet born. Today is a day to check the fragile flame of your own baptismal candle. Against February's customary lethargy, its background whines and ailments, the liturgy summons us to life, grasps us by the hand, and sends us to serve in Christ's name.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

In the gospel today, Jesus heals the sick and performs other such miracles. He then tells His disciples that He cannot stay. He must move on to the next town and continue preaching and healing others. “For this purpose have I come,” Jesus says.

As Christ’s disciples, it is our purpose and our mission to proclaim the Word of God to the world today. We are, in effect, the hands and feet of Christ, and He calls each one of us to continue His ministry of proclaiming the good news. In fact, that is why He established the Church – to call all men to Himself.

Each one of us plays a very important role in the Church’s mission. We are all vital members of the One Church, and the Lord has given us many good gifts with which to carry out this mission. When we live our lives for the glory of God and use our gifts – our time, our talents, and our treasure – to serve the Lord by serving others, people are sure to see Christ in us. People are sure to be drawn to our way of life, to the hope and happiness Christ offers, and men are sure to come to Him.

Later in Mark’s gospel, when Jesus tells the apostles, “Go into all the world and preach the gospel to the whole creation,” (Mk. 16:15), He was speaking to the whole Church. Let us take ownership of our call. May we all use our God-given gifts, our time, our talent, and our treasure – to proclaim the good news: Christ has come to save all and He offers everyone life everlasting. It is a wonderfully hope-filled message. May our lives reflect its truth!

Jb 7:1-4, 6-7; Ps 147:1-2, 3-4, 5-6; 1 Cor 9:16-19, 22-23; Mk 1:29-39

THE GOOD NEWS

Today’s readings begin with a few verses from the book of Job. First, Job complains that his nights drag on endlessly. Then, worse yet, “My days are swifter than a weaver’s shuttle; / they come to an end without hope” (Job 7:6). Not exactly encouraging, these lamentations, not when taken alone.

Most of us have been there, though, and the antidote is the “good news” that Paul found so compelling that “an obligation has been imposed on me, and woe to me if I do not preach it!” (1 Corinthians 9:16). Paul felt driven to announce the gospel to as many people as possible, “to save at least some” (9:22).

This good news is the mystery of the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, who lifted Simon Peter’s mother-in-law from her sickbed with a mere touch of his hand. “The whole town was gathered at the door. He cured many who were sick with various diseases, and he drove out many demons” (Mark 1:33–34)). Our woes and demons are as real as Job’s, and Jesus is our savior.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

February 5, 2012, Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Keep your family safe, O Lord, with unflinching care, that, relying solely on the hope of heavenly grace, they may be defended always by your protection.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Reflection question:

How can I come to rely more on heavenly grace?

REFLECTION DOMINICAL

En el evangelio de hoy, Jesús cura a los enfermos y realiza otros milagros. Él entonces le dice a sus discípulos que no se puede quedar. Tiene que pasar a la siguiente ciudad y seguir predicando y curando a otros. "Para esto he venido", dice Jesús.

Como los discípulos de Cristo, es nuestro propósito y nuestra misión de proclamar la Palabra de Dios para el mundo de hoy. Estamos, en efecto, las manos y los pies de Cristo, y Él llama a cada uno de nosotros para continuar su ministerio de proclamar la buena noticia. De hecho, es por eso que estableció la Iglesia - para llamar a todos los hombres a sí mismo.

Cada uno de nosotros juega un papel muy importante en la misión de la Iglesia. Todos somos miembros vitales de la Iglesia Una, y el Señor nos ha dado muchas cosas buenas con las que llevar a cabo esta misión. Cuando vivimos nuestras vidas para la gloria de Dios y usar nuestros dones - nuestro tiempo, nuestros talentos y nuestro tesoro - para servir al Señor sirviendo a los demás, la gente está segura de ver a Cristo en nosotros. La gente está seguro de ser atraídos por nuestra forma de vida, la esperanza y la felicidad ofrece Cristo, y los hombres están seguros de ir a él.

Más tarde, en el evangelio de Marcos, cuando Jesús dice a los apóstoles: "Id por todo el mundo y predicad el evangelio a toda criatura" (Marcos 16:15), Él estaba hablando a toda la Iglesia. Vamos a tomar posesión de nuestra llamada. Que todos podamos utilizar nuestros dones dados por Dios, nuestro tiempo, nuestro talento y nuestro tesoro - para proclamar la buena noticia: Cristo ha venido para salvar a todos y nos ofrece la vida eterna a todos. Es un mensaje maravillosamente llena de esperanza. Que nuestras vidas reflejen la verdad!
