Fifth Sunday of Easter - May 22, 2011

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. The Eudists currently operate in 15 countries, most of which are in the developing world. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church."

Second Reading — We, like living stones, let ourselves be built into a spiritual house (1 Peter 2:4-9).

Stewardship Reflection

"Whoever believes in me will do the works that I do, and will do greater ones than these." The apostles, gathered in the upper room with Jesus, must have been astounded to hear him utter those words. Hadn't he been feeding the multitudes and healing the sick? How were they supposed to do greater works?

His answer came as he completed his statement: "because I am going to the Father." Beginning his intercession for us before the Father, we can pray in his name as he prepares a place for us. As he told them, "If you know me, then you will also know my Father." It takes our commitments to stewardship to get to know Jesus, as we spend time with him in worship, prayer, and meditative readings of the Bible. But if we do, St. Peter informs us we, "like living stones" can let ourselves "be built into a spiritual house" where spiritual sacrifices of praise can be offered to the Father.

But just getting to know Jesus calls for stewardship of Time, so the institution of the diaconate called for stewardship of Treasure and Talent. Stephen and the others were chosen because they were "filled with the Spirit and wisdom" to distribute the material resources of the Jerusalem Church responsibly, and they expanded their ministry to include preaching and evangelization. We, following their example, can do the works of God in our own situations in life, wherever God has placed us.

What return shall I make to the Lord for all the Lord has given me? Psalm 116

San Diego Blood Bank

Will be at St. James today Sunday, May 22, from 7:30AM to 1:00PM. to receive blood donations. The need for blood remains great throughout the county and state, and we urge your participation. Bringing it close to home, we have had several parishioners whose lives have been saved by blood transfusions, and over the years we've been doing it, your donations have saved over 9,000 lives. Remember: people are the only source, there is no substitute.

We need a big turnout! The first time you donate blood each year, you automatically create a Blood Assurance Program for your own family. Thereafter, you may donate a credit to anyone you choose. It may be given to the Parish, or to any other group, or to a person of your choosing who has an immediate need for blood.

Blood donations credited to the Parish are available to any parishioner, or to a member of the immediate family of a parishioner, at any time; whenever blood is needed, contact the rectory office.

The Blood Bank will make available as many units of blood as are needed, at absolutely no charge to the patient.

Mission Circle

Our tutoring program needs "Hooked On Phonics" which is part of the Learning To Read program as a learning aid for our pre-school kids. If you have this program to donate, please call Amanda Maytom at 858-342-9220.

Clothes for the spring fashion show at the Casa Eudes Girls Home are being collected now. At this fun event, the kids model outfits they've created from the donations. Please leave clothes with a little style -- dresses, tops, pants, and jewelry -- in the collection box in the social room of St. James. Be sure they're labeled "fashion show".

Basic clothes are also needed for the migrant worker families in Coachella, CA. Please leave clean, wearable clothes in the collection box in the church social room.

Children's toys needed to sell at the Casa Eudes thrift shop to benefit the girls' home. The store also needs small kitchen appliances like blenders and hand mixers, kitchenware and costume jewelry. Leave them in the collection box in the church social room.

Please consider joining our team -- we need people to help co-ordinate both our donation and bread programs. These jobs are essentially organizational -- arranging for pick-ups and deliveries. The programs are running smoothly now -- we just need some help running them. Please think about donating a few hours each month to help the poor. For more information, call Lucie Walther at 858 755-8060.

Reflexión

Quienquiera que cree en mí hará las obras que yo hago, y harán más grande que éstas" Los apóstoles, se reunieron en el cuarto superior con Jesús, deberían de estar asombrados al oír que pronunciaba esas palabras. ¿No había estado alimentando él a las multitudes y curando a los enfermos? ¿Cómo supondrían hacer obras mas grandes que las de él?

Su respuesta vino a completar su declaración: "Porque voy al Padre". Empezando su intercesión por nosotros ante el Padre, nosotros podemos orar en su nombre y él preparará un lugar para nosotros. Como les dijo, "Si ustedes me conocen, entonces ustedes también conocerán a mi Padre". Si tomamos nuestro compromiso en la administración para conocer a Jesús, veamos como pasamos el Tiempo con él en la misa, en la oración, y en la lectura y meditación de la Biblia, Pero si hacemos, lo que dice san Pedro, "como piedras vivas" podemos permitirnos "en construir una casa espiritual" donde el sacrificio espiritual de nuestra oración puede ser ofrecido al Padre.

Solo consiguiendo conocer las llamadas de Jesús administraremos el tiempo, la institución del diaconado fue llamado para la administración del Tesoro y Talento. Esteban y los demás diáconos fueron escogidos porque ellos "fueron llenos con el Espíritu y la sabiduría" para distribuir los recursos materiales de la iglesia de Jerusalén responsablemente, y ellos expandieron su ministerio incluyendo la predicación y la evangelización. Nosotros, siguiendo sus ejemplos, podemos hacer las obras de Dios en nuestras propias situaciones en la vida, dondequiera que Dios nos ha colocado
