The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ - June, 26, 2011

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. The Eudists currently operate in 15 countries, most of which are in the developing world. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church."

Stewardship Reflections...

The Lord provided for the Israelites on the journey from Egypt to the Promised Land by supplying them with manna for food and water for drink. He wanted them to learn to trust him for their physical needs as well. "Not by bread alone does one live, but by every word that comes from the mouth of the Lord."

Jesus also provides his followers with the food they need on their spiritual journeys, a food even more amazing than manna, for he feeds us with his own Body and Blood. It's only by eating his flesh and drinking his blood that we can receive the nourishment we need for eternal life, he said, and that's what we receive at the Holy Eucharist.

But we do not obtain this nourishment only for our own benefit. We receive it also so we can carry out the mission entrusted to us by Christ, who gave us his flesh "for the life of the world." We are called to use the time, talent, and treasure entrusted to us to extend the Kingdom of God by working to invite all people to the Eucharistic banquet.

Living Stewardship Now

Feed others in a ministry of hospitality: sign up to run a parish coffee hour, fish fry, or supper event. Be a team member at a homeless soup kitchen. Take meals to homebound neighbors. Leave fresh cookies on a newcomer's doorstep..

El pan que yo les daré es mi

El Santísimo Cuerpo
 y la
 Santísima Sangre de Cristo

Reflexión semanal

El Señor prevé a los israelitas en su jornada desde Egipto a la Tierra Prometida proporcionándoles el maná como alimento y el agua para beber. Deseó que aprendieran a fiarse de él en todas sus necesidades y también por las espirituales. "No sólo de pan se vive, pero por cada palabra que sale de la boca del Señor"

Jesús también proporciona su seguidores con el alimento que necesitan en sus trayecto espirituales, un alimento aún más asombroso que el maná, puesto que El nos alimenta con su propio Cuerpo y Sangre. Es sólo comiendo la carne y bebiendo su sangre nosotros recibimos el alimento que necesitamos para la vida eterna, El lo dijo, y eso es lo que recibimos en la Santa Eucaristía

Pero nosotros no obtenemos este alimento sólo para nuestro propio beneficio. Nosotros lo recibimos también y lo llevamos para realizar la misión confiada a nosotros por Cristo, que nos da su cuerpo "para la vida del mundo." Somos llamados para utilizar el Tiempo, el Talento, y el Tesoro confiado a nosotros para extender el reino de Dios trabajando para invitar todas las personas al banquete eucarístico.
