TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

One of the great treasures of the Eastern tradition is the icon of the Holy Trinity by the Russian iconographer Andrei Rublev in the 1400s. The Trinity is symbolized by the three travelers to the tent of Abraham and Sarah. They are seated at a table blessing a cup of wine, under the oak of Mamre. If you look closely, you will see a sacrificed calf in the chalice, reminding the viewer of the cross. The table, prepared for eating and tilted toward the viewer, is an invitation to the Eucharist. From left to right, each figure is keyed to a person of the Trinity. Like all icons, this image is theology in art. The persons are equal in proportion and dignity, they all carry staffs to symbolize their power, and are shown with golden wings and halos. Today, the best place to see Rublev's work is the Holy Trinity Cathedral, at the heart of the vast Holy Trinity monastery about an hour from Moscow. After decades of persecution, it is now once again a living monastery, a world heritage site, and the spiritual home of Russian Orthodoxy. A Google visit is highly recommended today!

PASSION PLAY OF OBERAMMERGAU
August 24 to September 3, 2010

If you miss this opportunity to see the famous Passion Play at Oberammergau in 2010 you will have to wait another ten years!

In 1633 the people of this small town in Bavaria vowed that if they were protected from the Black Plague they would put on a Passion Play every ten years. The plague subsided and they kept their promise since then. The last performance was in 2000 and some of us who were there in 2000 will be returning. It is now or wait until 2020.

Beside attending this historic event, experience the great Old World cities of Warsaw, a living monument to the spirit of the Polish people, the medieval Krakow with its 16th century castle once the home of the Polish kings, enjoy the historic Prague, the "Golden City," plus Munich, capital of Bavaria.

Join fellow parishioners and friends in a trip of a life time. It might seem early to make reservations ahead but if you want a place it is not early. Some dates are already sold out. Don't wait.

Plus Warsaw, Czestochowa/Auschwitz/Krakow, Prague and Munich. $4,299.00 from San Diego, first class hotels except Oberammergau, continental breakfast and 7 dinners, sightseeing, $100,000 flight insurance.

ONLY EVERY 10 YEARS!

Many, many thanks to everyone who gave clothes and jewelry for the girls' fashion show at Casa Eudes. This was postponed because of the flu and it was finally held May 23. The kids had so much fun! They loved dressing up and, after the show, selecting outfits they could keep. The remaining items went to the thrift shop to earn revenue for the school. All the donations were appreciated so much. Thank you.

THE RESPONSIBILITY OF OUR FAITH

Today is a day simply to ponder the fact that in baptism we were claimed by God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The first reading from Deuteronomy prompts us to fix in our hearts the truth that God is the Lord of both heaven and earth and there is no other god. Saint Paul reminds us that, because we received the Spirit of adoption in baptism, we are now children of God. In the Gospel Jesus charges us with the responsibility to make other disciples. These realities make today's solemnity a day of praise, adoration, and responsibility. It is a fitting day to thank God for the absolutely free gift of faith that we were given in baptism. It is also a day to ask God for strength to take on the responsibility of sharing that faith with others.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Marcos, Mateo y Lucas nos relatan los eventos de la Ascensión de Cristo al cielo. En estas narraciones Jesús envía a "los once y los que estaban con ellos" (Lucas 24:33), es decir, a todos los discípulos. La misión que Jesús nos confía es de ser sus testigos y llevar la Buena Nueva del perdón de los pecados desde Jerusalén a todas las naciones y a toda la creación. Esta predicación debe ir acompañada del Bautismo, para que así, las personas que escuchen el mensaje tengan la oportunidad de aceptar en su vida al Señor Jesús.

Por su parte, Jesús envía a los discípulos a bautizar a todas las personas en el nombre de la Santísima Trinidad. Es Dios entero, Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo actuando en la vida de toda persona bautizada, así como en la persona misionera. Hoy día estos misioneros son los papás y mamás que traen sus niños para ser bautizados. A ellos Jesús les exige: "Enseñen [a sus hijos e hijas] a cumplir todo lo que yo les he mandado" (Mateo 28:19). También les promete su ayuda diciendo: "Y yo estoy con ustedes hasta el fin del mundo" (Mateo 28:20).
