Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time - July 31, 2011

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643.

The Eudists currently operate in 15 countries, most of which are in the developing world. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church." For more information visit:

Be A Part of The 100 Year History of St. James

As part of the St. James Centennial celebration, we invite you to contribute to our 100-year history and celebrate the precious gift of life! Your gift to St. James, will enable us to acquire the Centennial Monument: A Celebration of Life & Hope. This life-size bronze will be installed on the patio of the bells. In this serene setting, all will feel welcome to sit near the monument in times of loss or sadness and feel an immediate sense of hope.

This is an opportunity for you and your family to help establish a permanent gift to the St. James community. Please contact one of the following people to request a brochure for more information:

The Bell Has Been Silent Too Long! Let it Ring Out Again!

As part of St. James Centennial celebration, the bell was transported to St. James Church Patio of the Bells, for Bishop Brom's celebration of the Centennial Mass on Saturday, July 23. Bishop Brom blessed the bell as an official sign of our commitment to its restoration as an important part of our legacy.

Thank you for celebrating with us and contributing to this inspired effort!

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

We humans think that mercy and justice are opposites, but that is not true of God. The Responsorial Psalm tells us that the Lord is both merciful and just. We see his mercy and generosity emphasized in the lessons for today.

The prophet Isaiah delivers God’s invitation to the hungry and thirsty, “Come, without paying and without cost.” We see this fulfilled in the Feeding of the Five Thousand, when Jesus “moved with pity” fed the crowd who had followed him. He still feeds us, and with even better food in the Eucharist, when we receive his Body and Blood. In addition, St. Paul assures us that nothing in all creation “will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

Such kindness from God calls for a generous response on our part, the response of a grateful heart. As stewards responsible to the Lord for the use of the time, talent, and treasure entrusted to us, we need to heed the Lord’s word so we can obey his will. When we do so, we find that when we give back to God, we receive even more spiritual riches.

Find out more about the changes and why this is a great time to more deeply appreciate the Mass by taking home a Catholic Update that can be found in the brochure rack at the entrance of the church.

Food for the needy on both sides of the border is especially appreciated in these hard times. Please leave non-perishables and produce that keeps for a long time in the back of the church with our thanks.

Just-FAITH

"Love your neighbor as yourself" is the great commandment. But, in my busy life, who really is my neighbor and what does my faith say I should do for my neighbor? JustFaith is an intensive thirty-week program that helps to answer these questions through reflection, study, prayer, and community.

For more information:

- Pick up a flyer in the vestibule of the church
- Visit the JustFaith Information table after Mass
- Contact Katie Hodsdon at 858-682-1118 or katekellyhodsdon@gmail.com
- Check out the JustFaith website at www.justfaith.org

"JustFaith is an invitation to look at our lives and an opportunity to allow Christ to step in and cure our spiritual blindness and lethargy. Really, what could be more important than accepting an invitation to grow spiritually, to hear again the Word of Christ and to be healed?"

—St. James Parishioner/JustFaith Graduate, 2011

Reflexión semanal

Nosotros los humanos pensamos que la misericordia y la justicia son contrarios, pero eso no es la verdad de Dios. El Salmo Responsorial nos dice que el Señor es ambas cosas misericordioso y justo. Vemos que su misericordia y su generosidad sobresalen en las lecturas de hoy.

El profeta Isaías trae la invitación de Dios al hambriento y al sediento, "Vengan, sin pagar y sin costo". Vemos esto realizado al alimentar a cinco mil cuando, Jesús "movido a compasión" alimentó la multitud que lo había seguido. El todavía nos alimenta, y con alimento aún mejor en la Eucaristía, cuando recibimos su Cuerpo y su Sangre. Además, San Pablo nos asegura que nada en toda la creación "podrá separarnos del amor de Dios en Jesucristo nuestro Señor".

Semejante bondad de la llamadas de Dios es para dar una respuesta generosa de nuestra parte, respuesta de un corazón agradecido. Como administradores responsables del Señor que somos en el uso del tiempo, el talento, y el tesoro que nos confió, nosotros debemos hacer caso de la palabra del Señor así cumpliremos su voluntad. Cuando hacemos esto, encontramos que cuando le regresamos a Dios, nosotros recibimos aún más riqueza espiritual.
