Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time - September 11, 2011

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. The Eudists currently operate in 15 countries, most of which are in the developing world. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church." For more information visit:

FORGIVENESS

Resentment and anger are foul things, the first reading from Sirach tells us. Remember the last things. Stop hating. Live by the commandments. As St. Paul writes to the Romans, we are to live for the Lord and die for the Lord. For us Americans on the tenth anniversary of September 11, 2001, forgiveness still does not come easily. Yet Jesus' parable in today's Gospel reminds us of God's compassion. The immense sin of humanity has been forgiven and stricken from the record. We are to forgive others in the same way.

"There are many kinds of alms the giving of which helps us to obtain pardon for our sins; but none is greater than that by which we forgive from our heart a sin that someone has committed against us."

—St. Augustine

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

God takes a serious view of sin, but he is eager to forgive sinners. His attitude is well expressed in the Responsorial Psalm, "The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger, and rich in compassion." Our response to God's mercy must be two-fold. First, in thankfulness for His kindness, we commit a portion of our time to prayer and worship, particularly by participating in the Eucharist, the Church's central act of worship and thanksgiving. Secondly, we hear over and over again that to receive God's forgiveness for our sins, we must forgive those who hurt us. We pray it in the Lord's Prayer, and we read the same lesson in the First Reading from Sirach and in the Gospel in Jesus' Parable of the Unforgiving Servant. Let us then forgive others, so that we in turn may receive forgiveness from God.

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT FORGIVENESS IS THE WAY OF JESUS

Today's Gospel reading continues Jesus' instructions on being good stewards of others – the direction that if we love Jesus Christ, we must forgive an individual 77 times. The reading compels us to consider one of the most difficult practices of Christian discipleship. Forgiveness is the way of Jesus, the way of the cross. Vengeance, bitterness and hatred seem so much easier and certainly more desirable. Forgiveness is a hard road to travel, but it is the only road that leads to life in Christ. Consider this week who you need to forgive.

"Forgive your neighbor's injustice; then when you pray, your own sins will be forgiven."

—Sirach 28:2

REFLEXION SEMANAL

Dios tiene una visión grave del pecado, mas está ansioso de perdonar a los pecadores. Su actitud está muy bien expresada en el Salmo de Responsorial, "El Señor es compasivo y misericordioso, lento para enojarse, y rico en compasión."

Nuestra respuesta a la misericordia de Dios debe ser doble. Primero, en el agradecimiento por su bondad, nosotros dedicamos una parte de nuestro tiempo a la oración y el culto, especialmente cuando tomamos parte en la Eucaristía, el acto central de adoración y acción de gracias de la Iglesia

En segundo lugar, nosotros oímos una y otra vez que para recibir el perdón de Dios por nuestros pecados, debemos perdonar a los que nos ofenden. Rezamos en el Padrenuestro, y leemos la misma lección en la primera Lectura de Sirácide y en el Evangelio Jesús en la parábola del sirviente implacable. Permita que nosotros entonces perdonemos a otros, para que podamos recibir en cambio el perdón de Dios.
