Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time - September 18, 2011

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. The Eudists currently operate in 15 countries, most of which are in the developing world. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church." For more information visit:

WELCOME TO

St. James-St. Leo Catholic Community!

We warmly welcome all visitors and hope you will consider making our community your parish home. Church attendance does not make you or your family registered members. Registration forms are in the brochure rack at the entrance of the church, or at the parish office.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Turn to the LORD, who is generous in forgiving (Isaiah 55:6-9).
Psalm — The Lord is near to all who call upon him (Psalm 145).
Second Reading — Live your lives in a way worthy of the gospel of Christ (Philippians 1:20c-24, 27a).
Gospel — The last will be first, and the first will be last (Matthew 20:1-16a).

“Turn to the Lord for mercy; to our God, who is generous in forgiving.”
—Isaiah 55:7b

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

The Parable of the Workers in the Vineyard is one that startles centuries after Jesus told it. Those who worked in the vineyard only part of the day, perhaps just one hour, get paid as much as those who labored the whole day long.

The parable, however, is not so much about the workers as it is about the owner of the vineyard. The owner paid all the workers everything they had agreed upon. But in his generosity, he paid many of them more than was required.

In the same way, God is more than just; he is merciful. In his mercy and generosity, he gives all who turn to him eternal life in heaven, both to those who serve him all their lives and those who respond to him a short time before death.

Our response to this merciful and generous God should be one of thankfulness and a commitment to offer him a portion of the time, talent, and treasure he has entrusted to us.

CATHOLIC STEWARSHIP MINUTE

Christian stewards do not stand idly by, helpless or disengaged. They open their hearts to conversion and draw closer to those who suffer. They seek ways to diffuse violence and conflict. They seek to understand those with whom they disagree. They encourage leaders to act with prudence and compassion. Christian stewards re-commit their lives to following in the footsteps of Jesus to make the world a better place.

PRAYER OF BLESSING FOR CATECHISTS

Lord God, source of all wisdom and knowledge, you sent your Son, Jesus Christ, to live among us and to proclaim his message of faith, hope, and love to all nations.

In your goodness bless our brothers and sisters who have offered themselves as catechists for your Church. Strengthen them with your gifts that they may teach by word and example the truth which comes from you.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

CATECHECTICAL SUNDAY

Today is Catechetical Sunday, the day all across America that Catholics honor those men and women who teach and share their faith with others. Please pray for our St. James and St. Leo catechists who serve in many areas of faith formation from young children to adults.

Just-FAITH

Please keep our 27 JustFaith participants in prayer as they begin the program this week.

REFLEXION DOMINICAL

La Parábola de los Trabajadores en la Viña es uno de esas que asustan siglos después de que Jesús lo dijera. Los que trabajaron en la viña sólo parte del día, quizás sólo una hora, se les pagó tanto como a los que trabajaron mucho el día entero.

La parábola sin embargo, no se refiere tanto a los trabajadores como al propietario de la viña. El propietario pagó a todos los trabajadores todo que habían aceptado. Pero en su generosidad, él pagó muchos mas a ellos de lo que fue requerido.

De la misma manera, Dios es más que justo; es misericordioso. En su misericordia y generosidad, da la vida eterna en el cielo a todos los que se convierten a El, y le sirven toda su vida y los que le responden un tiempo corto antes de la muerte.

Nuestra respuesta a este Dios misericordioso y generoso debe ser de un agradecimiento y un compromiso de ofrecerle una porción del tiempo, el talento, y Tesoro y apreciar lo que ha confiado a nosotros.

*Regrese al Señor, y él tendrá piedad;
a nuestro Dios, que es rico en perdón.*

— Isaías 55:7b

Septiembre Mes de la biblia.

“Los Padres de la Iglesia, en su traducción griega del antiguo Testamento, usaron unas palabras del profeta Isaías que también cita San Pablo para mostrar cómo los nuevos caminos de Dios fueron preanunciados ya en el Antiguo Testamento. Allí se leía: “Dios ha cumplido su palabra y la ha abreviado” (Is 10,23; Rm 9,28)... El Hijo mismo es la Palabra, el Logos; la Palabra eterna se ha hecho pequeña, tan pequeña como para estar en un pesebre. Se ha hecho niño para que la Palabra esté a nuestro alcance». Ahora, la Palabra no sólo se puede oír, no sólo tiene una voz, sino que tiene un rostro que podemos ver: Jesús de Nazaret.”
